

The Living History Society of Minnesota, Inc. is a non-profit educational organization dedicated to understanding civilian lifestyles of the mid-nineteenth century. Our goal is to educate the public by demonstrating and interpreting daily activities of the mid-nineteenth century in a manner that is both informative and entertaining. We combine historical research with hands-on experience to create a sense of the past not available in history books or on film.

Mid-Nineteenth Century Ambience

Costumed members of the Society will add a delightful period atmosphere to your event as they interact with participants and guests. Trained in first and third person interpretation, members of the Society will engage in casual conversation with event attendees, providing a suitable mid-nineteenth ambience to any social event or activity. Dressed in period clothing appropriate to your event (i.e. formal, informal, evening dress, day wear), our interpreters may also be available to perform simple tasks as needed to support your event.

Presenters: A minimum of three people will interpret the event.

Venue: Suitable theme events within thirty minutes of the Twin Cities.

Program Length: Maximum of four hours.

Availability: Evenings, weekends, and by special request.

Audience: Appropriate for schools, social groups, fundraisers, corporate functions, retirement communities, and historic sites.

Corporate rate: $100/hr per interpreter

Non-Profit rates available. Please contact the LHS for more details.

Please Note: This activity is readily adaptable to school programs and can also be combined with one or more of our other activities to provide a more complete educational experience for the participants.
