

"GO IT!!"

MINNESOTA & PACIFIC RAILROAD LAND GRANT

Jollification,

TO COME OFF AT

SAINT PAUL TRIUNE MASONIC LODGE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2003

The great mass of citizens of The Living History Society of Minnesota, believing that the passage of the Land Grant for Railroad purposes calls for a public demonstration, have come to the conclusion to turn in and have a kind of a time generally, and to do the same in such a way that the various dispositions and tastes of the whole society, and of our invited guests for fun and frolic in the "GOOD TIME" THAT HAS COME! may be fully satisfied with and through a traditional Victorian America evening of delightful dancing, bountiful buffet, and lovely live music provided by The Camptown Ladies.

Comfortable modern clothing is appropriate for the Dance Workshop while period attire shall be admired, though not required, for the evening festivities. The Jollification is open to those aged 14 years and older.

Further details may be obtained from <http://www.lhsmn.org/> or by e-mail to wmcrooks@lhsmn.org.

The following is, in part, a Programme of the Performances for the occasion

All activities on Saturday October 25, 2003 are at the Triune Masonic Lodge located at 1898 Iglehart Ave. in St. Paul, Minnesota. One ticket is good for all events.

- Dance Workshop: 9:00 AM to 2:30 PM with hearty lunch available.
- Jollification (The dance, with refreshments and light supper): 8:00 PM to 12:00 AM.
