

Annual Winter Celebration

TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 17, 18 AND 19

by the Living History Society of Minnesota

Festivities to Include:

Friday Evening Theatrical to feature a memorable performance by the MinneHaHa Players of the charming farce “Turn Him Out!” This will be a private performance for members of our esteemed society and their kind guests. An introductory narrative will commence at 7 pm with a break for refreshments before the 7:30 curtain. This will be an early evening ending before 9 so that all can retire and prepare for Saturday’s festivities.

Triune Masonic Lodge in Saint Paul.....$5 Members.....$7 Guests
(Civil War era attire respectfully required. A public performance will be held February 24th)

Saturday dance workshop, in modern attire, from the hours of 9 am to 2 pm including a lunch rest. Following the dance practice the hall will be closed but will reopen at 6:30pm to allow the ladies to become properly attired on the site in preparation for .....

The Winter Ball and Dinner

Set to begin with a Grand March at 8 in the evening.

This year’s annual winter event is in the spirit of Charity in conjunction with the Ladies Aid Society Bazaar to Support our Soldiers kept far from home this season.

Triune Masonic Lodge.....$45 admission for Members.....$55 for Guests (Attire of the Civil War era respectfully required for The Winter Ball and Dinner.)

Sunday to be spent enjoying winter’s pleasures with Skating and Coasting, weather permitting, from 12 noon to 5 in the evening. We will gather at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Pinkerton and from there make the short trip to a lovely Victorian Park in Minneapolis to enjoy the season. Make use of your period winter clothing, skates and toboggans. Of course modern skates and clothing are permitted but period dress is preferred. This day of enjoyment is free for all and lunch and other refreshments will be served.
